

ANNOUNCEMENT TO BE READ AT MAYOR AND COUNCIL MEETING

April 20, 2009

Gaithersburg will literally “go to the dogs” this Saturday, April 25th as we host our annual “Bark in the Park” canine celebration from noon to 3 p.m. at Bohrer Park, 506 South Frederick Avenue.

Dogs can strut their stuff and pull out their best tricks for the judges in the “Doggone It” costume parade and contest, or show off their hunting prowess in the “No Bones About It” bone hunt. There will also be a dog obstacle course, rabies clinic, tips and tricks from a professional dog trainer, prizes, and plenty of useful information and giveaways from a variety of vendors.

Admission is $10 per dog. For more information visit the City's website at www.gaithersburgmd.gov or call 301-258-6350.
