

Event Overview

Welcome to our first Ultimate Lawn Party at Bohrer Park, where you'll find special activities and promotions to celebrate the Gaithersburg community and our nation's independence. Lawn activities begin at 5 p.m. A complete list of activities is below. Note that sitting on pathways is prohibited throughout the event.

Park Facilities

Water Park 11 a.m. – 7 p.m.

The Water Park is for the exclusive use of City residents and aquatics members today. The main pool is like a dream vacation on an island resort, with palm trees, multiple slides, animal floats, and tumble buckets. The zero-depth entry pool makes it accessible to all. $

Mini Golf 11 a.m. – 7 p.m.

"Come play a round" on 18 challenging holes amidst beautifully landscaped waterfalls, streams and ponds. Take a picture at the patriotic mini photo booth and enter to win holiday-themed prizes. ADA & stroller accessible. $

Skate Park 3 p.m. – 11 p.m.

Our 12,300 square foot skate park is designed for skateboards, inline skates and BMX bikes, with ramps and structures for all skill levels. Rental equipment available. Free admission. Stay after the fireworks to skate under the lights.

Other Amenities

There are Information Booths at both Activity Areas. Take a survey for a chance to win a Summer Fun in Gaithersburg Gift Basket!

First Aid and Water Stations are next to the Information Booths.

Port-a-Johns are located throughout the park.

A Cooling Station is located inside the Activity Center. The building is air conditioned and features restrooms, water and an ATM. It will be open from 3 to 9 p.m.

Fireworks

The 30-minute fireworks spectacular begins at dusk (about 9:30 p.m.) and will feature colorful bursts that launch up to 500 feet.

SummerGlo After Party

Don't rush out of the park after the fireworks. Stick around for the SummerGlo After Party hosted by DJ Sweetpea. We'll keep dancing 'til 11 p.m., the playground will be lit, we'll have glow-in-the-dark giveaways, and you can find late night snacks from some of our vendors.
