Invites you to Come Sing With Us!

The Gaithersburg Chorus is a group of local vocalists who share their joy of music. The Chorus meets weekly for rehearsals and performs both Winter and Spring concerts, as well as other performances throughout the year. No auditions required for general members. Section Leader auditions are held at the beginning of each year and in January if needed. Those interested in auditioning for a section leader position should be able to demonstrate:

- Confidence in solo vocals
- Blending abilities
- Ability to learn new music quickly
- Strong sight-reading skills
- Commitment to Winter and Spring concerts as well as other performances as scheduled
- Dedication to regularly attend weekly rehearsals
- Leadership skills
- Positive attitude about rehearsing, performing, and being part of a talented, fun group

Be prepared to sing one piece of your own choosing, sight read and vocalize to demonstrate range. Please bring 3 copies of your music and a short biographical sketch. Bio should include musical training, years of study/experience, music teacher(s), and any other relevant musical background and/or performances.
