Commemoration Opportunities in the City of Gaithersburg

Trees

Join us in continuing our commitment to the environment by planting a tree in select City parks or public areas. A certificate acknowledging the planting will be provided, and a plaque can be placed near the tree.

$250 tree only

$400 tree with plaque

Theatre Seats

The Arts Barn, Gaithersburg's premier cultural arts facility, hosts dozens of concerts and theatrical performances each year. Show your support for the arts by naming one of the 99 seats in this intimate, creative venue.

$500

Benches

Create a restful place for all to enjoy when you purchase a commemorative bench and plate in select City parks and public spaces.

$750

Parks, Pavilions and Fields

Commemorative naming opportunities are available for select parks and fields, pavilions, buildings, and activity rooms. We would be happy to explore the possibilities with you.

Walkway Bricks

Gaithersburg's Wells/Robertson House is a turn-of-the-century Victorian home that now serves as a transitional program for homeless men and women in recovery from chemical addiction. A brick "Walk of Life" leading to the house serves as a daily affirmation of the community spirit that makes recovery a reality.

$100 for 4x8" brick

$245 for 8x8" paver

Any Other Ideas
