

READING BUDDIES

At the Gaithersburg Library

Great Weekly Service Project Opportunity!

- What? Get your service learning hours while helping others in our weekly “Reading Buddies” service program. You will be reading books/stories to children at the Gaithersburg Public Library. You can read to an individual child or to a small group of children. You must have a current GYC or Student Union membership to participate.
- Date The “Reading Friends” program starts on Monday, Sept. 21, 2015 and continues every Monday throughout the school year. We ask that volunteers participate as much as possible, but they are not required to volunteer every week.
- Time & Location Meet at the Youth Center (301 Teachers Way) by 3:30 p.m. on Mondays. We will ride the shuttle over to the Gaithersburg Library at and return to the Youth Center by 5:30 p.m.

You must have a signed permission slip in order to participate in this program.*

I hereby grant permission for _____ to attend the activity sponsored by the City of Gaithersburg. I understand that I am responsible for my child’s insurance in case of injury. Furthermore I understand that although safety precautions will be observed, the City of Gaithersburg, employees and agents will not be responsible for any personal property lost by my child or for any injury sustained in the program. The participant also consents to the City’s use of any photographs taken or video tapes made of the program.
