

MY HERO

My mom is my hero. I chose her because she plays an important role in my life. The way she plays a role is by being there for me, and supporting me. She cooks, sweeps, does laundry, gets us to school every weekday, and last she loves me. My mother teaches me right from wrong, helps me do homework, and proves her trust. Whenever I have trouble or if I want to talk to her I know she will listen!

I know I can trust her. She never tells secrets, she won't get mad if I make a mistake, and I can always talk to her if there's anything going on. Next, I always treat her with respect. I've learned: treat others with respect and they'll treat you with respect. Then there are responsibilities. I am responsible for things and mom is too. She has to take care of 3 kids! My mom is always fair and always divides equally among us. She believes in being fair so that way no one is left out. Caring is probably her game. She is always, always caring for me and my siblings. My mom has citizenship. She is very kind to her neighbors, she volunteers in community service, and she does her part to take care of our environment.

My mother has inspired me to do well in life, not to commit crimes, be a nice person, and mainly to treat others the way you want to be treated.
